Description :

PDF-782f0 | The Crimean War (1853-6) was the only conflict of European dimensions in the century between the Napoleonic Wars and World War I. There were not only the five great European powers that were directly or indirectly involved; all the smaller European states that had remained neutral sooner or later confronted the question of whether to join the fray or stay outside. This text considers the origins a... The Crimean War (Modern Wars)
