Description :

PDF-d2faa | In a world dominated by nation-states, expressions of private violence have generally been neglected: either as relics of a more disorganised world or as marginal nuisances to states themselves. The prevalence and centrality of private violence in the past and present warns against such complacency. An increasing academic interest in 'non-state' or private violence in International Relations has b... *Mercenaries, Pirates, Bandits and Empires: Private Violence in Historical Context.
