Description :

PDF-01488 | Few people today have ever heard of North Brother Island, though a hundred years ago it was place known to?and often feared by?nearly everyone in New York City. The island, a small dot in the East River, twenty acres slotted between today's gritty industrial shores of the Bronx and Queens, was a minor piece of the New York archipelago until the late 19th century, when calls for social and sa... North Brother Island: The Last Unknown Place in New York City
