Description :

PDF-b215d | In 1854, a quarter of a million British soldiers headed east to fight in the Crimean War. Together with their French and Turkish allies, the goal was to free the important port city of Sevastopol from the clutches of Russia, thus keeping them from the seizing control of the Red Sea and thence Mediterranean. This they did, but not without considerable hardship, suffering and loss of life - over two... Passages on the Crimean War: The Crimean War Diary of Private Richard Barnham, 38th Regiment South Staffordshire
