Description :

PDF-35b18 | This volume of English Heritage Research Transactions is devoted to the traditional stone slates found on some of England's most attractive and historically important buildings. The first paper presents an overview of the problems of supplying traditional roofing material, following the closure of the many quarries and delves which provided stone slates to local communities over the centuries. Thi... Stone Roofing: Conserving the Materials and Practice of Traditional Stone Slate Roofing in England (English Heritage Research Transactions)
