Description :

PDF-26028 | After their release from English jails, the surviving rebels of the 1916 Easter Rising concentrated on fighting political battles under the banner of Sinn Féin. In the general election of December 1918, Sinn Féin won an overwhelming majority of parliamentary seats across Ireland and, in early 1919, created the Dáil, declaring it to be the parliament of the independent Irish Republic. When We... The Twelve Apostles
